WHAT IS YOUR ROLE AS AN EMPLOYER IN THE PREP4WORK PROGRAM?

As an employer in the Prep4Work program, you will play a key role in assisting people to learn and develop valuable skills to stay retained in the workforce. You will provide an insight into your industry as well as providing these people with skills they may have otherwise not had the chance to gain.

WHAT ARE THE PROGRAM BENEFITS?

- Give people the opportunity to develop valuable skills.
- Gain access to a pool of quality, suitable and sustainable candidates.
- The program can act as a 'screening process' for your own recruitment needs.

THE ROLE OF WESTVIC STAFFING SOLUTIONS

- Cover all legal requirements of work experience placement
- Provide training and transport for all individuals participating in the program.
- Assist in coordination of work placements, and conduct site visits during this process to evaluate progress.
- As a Group Training Organisation, we can assist with employment of any participants after the conclusion of the program
